

21st July' 2010

*Workshop by Aakash Institute for Class X and XI
Choice of Subject for Class X*

Balance between CBSE and Entrance for Class XI

Young mind of students need guidance to draw up an appropriate career plan from the wide variety of career options they have. Keeping this in mind, a workshop for the students of Class X and XI was organized by “Aakash Institute”. The students were motivated to achieve their goals. They were told to be focused and determined. The session apprised the students of the eligibility criteria and job opportunities pertaining to various career options. Class X students were enlightened about the future prospects of different streams VIZ. Science, Commerce and Humanities.